PRISON REFORM.

Memorial of the New York Prison

Association.

The Want and Necessity of a Higher and

Better Order of Penitentiary

Management.

The memorial of the New York Prison Association to the Legislature in favor of an amendment to the State constitution as to our penitentiary system is a document deserving of serious and attentive conseleration. An article on "Prison Labor," published recently in the HERALD, dealt with one phase of the the attention of every one concerned in pentientiary reform. The starting point of their reform is em-

First—There shall be a board of managers of prisons, to be composed of two persons appointed by the Governor, with the actions said consent of the Senate, who shall hold office for ten years.

Frost — That board shall have the charge and superintend-ance of the State prisons, and have such power and perform

Account of the state prisons, and have such jower and perform such dutes in resect to the prisons in the State as the Legislature may prescribe.

An of they shall appoint a secretary who shall be removable at their pleasure, perform such dutes as the Legislature or the learned may direct, and receive a salary to be determined in the law.

consec.

File—The board shall appoint the warden, clerk, physician and chaplain of each State Prison, and shall have power to reduce them for cause, only after an opportunity to be heard on written charges.

State—All other officers of each prison shall be appointed

The utility and practical bearing of this project may be variously estimated. Many there are who think the Prison Association impracticable and Utopian in their schemes of penitentiary reform;

therefore it is that some outline of what the society complains of and asks to be remedied may be of interest and instruction to the public, as showing the quality of argument employed against the present system. They put pertinent questions in asking:-- Why is it that convict labor remains now at about the same price at which it ranged twenty years ago, when within that time everything else has so enhanced in price that the ordinary expenditures for the prisons have risen from $168,416 a year to $589,913? Why abandon the marble quarry at Sing Sing when heretofore the produce-which was of an inferior and condemned quat-ity-was taken from the surface, and now, when it is taken thirty, forty or fifty feet below the surface

it is said to produce a very superior article, and that said by the State officers and experienced men who are working it, who are so confident of results as to be willing to guarantee that with 500 prisoners en-be willing to guarantee that with 509 prisoners engaged in the quarry the whole cost of the prison can be paid? And, finally, why abandon the fron business at Clinton, when it is declared that the failure there has been entirely owing to the "contract" system, and that with the labor of the prisoners, conducted alone under State authority, that prison also can be made to be selfsupporting?

So far for the labor part of the matter; but it is not so much to that as to the moral administration not so much to that as to the moral administration of the prisoners that the society addresses uself. Their ann, as the people know, is first to arouse and strengthen the noral mannood of the convet or to lead an honest sife. The services the denvor to lean an increasing. The services day have performed in the past for the better government and information of prisoners have been really great and numerous. Their first business as a hammine association was to disabase the minds of the officers of the idea that R was their duty to inflict upon the prisoners any sufficing not required by law, merely occause pumishment for crime was the object of their confinement. This was a slow and difficult work and has not yet been completed, as is shown in various ways even to this day—as in the repulsive character of their uniform, the denial of paper for the water closet, the suppression of inneral services, arothrary commands and an overbearing manner towards them, &c.

The introduction of libraries into the prison was an interesting inovenent. Out of 861 prisoners at Sing Stog in 1844 there were only 115 who could not read. The others, being seven-eighths of the whole number, had notting to read but their Bioles and hymb pocks and such works as were smuggled in among them. Since then there has been vast good performed in this branch of the penifontiary improvements.

Another measure was to increase the means of the provisionis.

Another measure was to increase the means of the convicts on leaving the prisons. An allowance of only three dollars agnee was then made.

It was ascertained by the association that seven out of ten of the discharged mais convicts led nonest lives afterwards, and it was believed that this proportion could be increased by more aid to them on their discharge. The inspectors at Sing Sing, in November, 1844, appealed to the public "to reader their aid by forming a society " * Whose object should be to find employment for those who shall give evidence of repentance and reformation." There upon this association was formed, and in its first appeal for funds it avowed among its purposes to aid discharged prisoners in their efforts at leading honest lives."

This measure also was in accordance with public feeling. Liberal contributions were made, so that the association was cenabled to employ an agent (Isaac T. Hopper), whose whole time was devoted to that object, and during its first year relief was extended to seventy-four from the State Prison at Sing Sing, forty from the Pententiary and two from the House of Refuge. Of the males thus relieved places of employment were procured for fifty-eight, and only one of the number turned out bad.

The Legislature in due time again interfered and increased the allowance to discharged convicts from three dollars appece to ten dollars.

A plan was introduced into all the prisons to allow the inmates what its known as "overstant," or a compensation for overwork, to be paid to them on their discharge.

The advantage of this measure was at once ap-pensation for overwork, to be paid to them on their discharge.

The advantage of this measure was at once apparent in the good order and industry of the men; but it was shorn of much of its benefits by the want of legislative sauction. It was introduced on the mere motion of the prison officers and could be carried out only by an arrangement with the contractors. The men who were at work for the State-and that was a large portion of them—were deprived of the privilege, because the officers and no power to expend the funds of the State for that purpose.

Another reform was the introduction of funeral services at Sing Sing. Before that the practice was to cut up and pack the dead bodies in a barrel, to be sent to New York for dissection, or encase them in rough, wooden boxes and have them borne away on the shoulders of three or four men and thrust in the ground to rot and be forgotten. The effect of the FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

FRIDAY, Jan. 14-6 P. M. All the animation in Wall street to-day was after coard, for during the regular hours of business GENERAL DULNESS prevailed, not only in stocks, but in gold, governents and securities of all kinds, the street manibesting an indisposition to do anything, but for what ectal reason did not appear, unless it was that the maller operators were waiting for the leaders, who have been rather quiet since the first stage of their movement. After the boards and in late street transactions there was considerable activity

THE STOCK MARKET CLOSED STRONG, particularly for the Vanderbilt shares, which rose to 92% for the stock and 87% for the scrip. NEW JERSEY GENTRAL was the feature of the rallways, and under a continuance of the speculation which has fifted it from 90 advanced to and sold at 100%. The buoyancy in this period extended to all the railways, and there was a general recovery from the depression which had attacked the list about midday, when prices were a quarter to three-quarters per cent below ses at the beginning of business in the early foreon. The feature after New Jersey Central was ney market was easy at six to seven per cent, the former being the general rate in almost all new loans. Commercial paper was quoted eight to twelve per cent for prime double name and ten to twelve for single name acceptances. The suspension of the woolfen nouse of De Bost & Co. was announced to-day. GOLD PETERSON

The gold market opened quietly and heavy in the absence of bad news from Paris, and the price de-clined to 121%. Its undertone was feverish and sensitive, however, so that when later in the day foreign exchange advanced a rumor was started that Paris was again in commotion, and the price of gold advanced to 122. Little credit was given this nor by the majority of dealers, but it made the "shorts" uneasy. At the close the price returned to 121%, at which the offerings were quite plentiful.

GOVERNMENT BONDS LOWER.
The decline in gold led to a falling off of from a larter to a haif per cont in government bonds, cspecially as the London quotations came lower to-day. The subsequent rise in gold to 122 did not occasion a recovery, but simply steaded the market, which fact indicates a discredit of the reports on which gold was run up. The following were closing street quotations for the government list:-United States currency sixes, 109% a 109%; do. sixes, 1881, registered, 117% a 117%; do. do., conpon, 117% a 117%; do. five-twenties, registered, May and November, 115% a 115%; do. do., 1862, coupon, do. do., 115% a 115%; do. do., 1864, do. do., 115% a 115½; do. do., 1865, do. do., 115½ a 115½; do. do., registered, January and July, 114 a 114½; do. do., 1865, coupon, do. do., 114 a 114½; do. do., 1867, do. do., 114% a 114%; do. do., 1568, do. do., 114% a 114%; do. ten-forties, registered, 111% a 112; do. do., cou-THE STATE BONDS-ACTIVITY IN "SPECIAL TAXES."

There'was an active market for the leading South-State bonds, particularly the new North Carolines and special tax bonds, which, after seiting down to 22%, suddenly advanced to 28. It seems that a great quantity of these securities had been cated for loans, and the margins baving given out the institutions holding them put them on market, causing the late sharp decline. The downward movement tempted in a large "short" in-terest, and the "long" bonds having ceased coming out the "bears" found so much difficulty in trying to borrow for delivery that they started to cover; bence the rise to-day. The Tennessees were weak and lower. Virginias were very strong. The Louisi anas and South Carolinas were dult and lower, the latter declining apparently with gold, in which their coupons are now patd. exchange was active and firm, although at the opening rates were lower than at the close of the day previous. The market showed signs of speculative manipulation, but in what connection it is difficult to discover. Perhaps the troubles in Paris are the secret of the advance. quotations of gold in the market from 1862, the year of the suspension of specie payments, to the present year; also a table showing the amount of gold clear-logs and the rates of gold loans respectively for the year 1869, together with a list giving the names and audresses of the members of the Gold Exchange, and a list of members of the New York Stock Exchange. This information, which is of a nature valuable to all business men, is presented in a form easy of reference, and from its source, which is almost official, can be relied upon as accurate.

THE INCOME TAX.

A Merchant Not Obliged to Deliver His Mocks to a United States Assessor.

[From the Philadelphia Post, Jan. 14.]
The case of George Doll, of the firm of George Doll & Co., Paporters of Taney goods, heard on writted Inabas corpus to be disconarged from arrest because of a refusal to deliver ms books to the United States Assessor of the Third district, was heard yesterday. Mr. Sharpless, for the detendant, made the following points, which are of interest to every merchant:— Chart:

Fig. — That the lish section of the act of June 20, 1854, under which the income tax is levied, is unconstitutional and vold, as undertaking to levy a capitation or at all words a direct tax, by the rule of uniformity and not that of apportionment.

Second—That so much of the fourteenth section of the same the shoulders of three or four men and thrust in the ground to, rot and be forgotten. The effect of the new measure was wonderful, and was shown in their feering during the service and in their more smodued and obedient deportment afterwards.

The means used for manualning discipline in the prisons is denounced as being without sympatial with the humans spirit of the age, and in this regard the public with the shower, back craciffs, thumberrews, &c., are fit only for medicaval times. In conclusion the association tatings that, taking all these things into consideration, in view of the fact that an additional State prison is now contemprated, and seeing plainly that our penticularly system has not kept pace with the advance of our knowledge, the increase of our that our penitendary system has not kept pace with the advance of our knowledge, the increase of our population and the consequent augmentation of crime among us, and believing that the time of crime among us, and believing that the time on the first particle when the requisite reforms may be established, the association will not propose any more temperary remedy, and is not prepared, without a far more thorough investigation, to suggest one of a permanent character. But they do most earnestly recommend the appointment of some conmission—to whom no pay shall be given except for necessary expenses—who shall be charged with the duty of inquiring into and maturing a financial plan for our state prisons; of maturing a system of prison discipline, and of making all the investigations necessary to that end, which shall be a permanent body, clothed with the power of inspecting the prisons and removing from office any one connected with them; of receiving act as tweats the assessor with power to compel a citizen who has once made his return of income under cash to produce his hooks and give evidence in regard so the same after its correctness has been challenged by the officer is unconstitutional and vold, as infringing upon the provision of article fifth, amendments of 1759, constitution of the United States. Now shall any person " he compelled in any ermainal case to be winess against binned!."

There has the power sought to be conferred upon the theory whe has section is really the "Indical power of the United States. Now shall see that the conferred upon the distribution of the transition of the transition of the transition of the transition of the product of the distribution of the President, certainly at that of the President and Senate.

Further That the proceeding authorized by the same section are an infringement of the clitice's constitutional right of trial by jury in every orthinal case. The Federal Legislation cannot create a new criminal oftence unknown to the common away our statute law at the time of the adoption of the constitution, and which was not then punishable summarily by "attraction as a thought of the production of the stranginary remedies; royided by the same setting are not to be used in reassessing income dutes; if there is occasion to reassess them it is to be done under the 10th section of the same act, which contains no provision for an "attachment as for a contempt."

Nath-It the live precising points are decided against us the proceedings here are so radichly defective and hopelessly incorrected that her relater must be discharged.

At the close of the argument Judge Cadwalader, without hesitation, discharged Mr. Doll. complaints against the officers and either consent-ing to their removal or restoring them after suspen-sion; with power to correct all evils that they may discover in the moral or financial administration of our prisons, and thoroughly to guard against pecu-lation or partiality in contracts, as well for supplies as tabor.
